

An Evening with Emmy Award-winning Journalist Jemele Hill

Thursday, Oct. 19, 2023, at 7:30 p.m.

Blake Arena, Springfield College

Join us for an evening with Jemele Hill, co-founder of Lodge Freeway Media, a contributing writer for The Atlantic, and host of an award-winning podcast. She is well-known for her time at ESPN, where most recently, she is set to produce the ESPN documentary on former NFL quarterback and civil rights activist Colin Kaepernick. Hill started her ESPN career in 2006, serving as a national columnist for espn.com, and making appearances on SportsCenter, First Take, Around the Horn, The Sports Reporters, and Outside the Lines. Most recently, she published Uphill: A Memoir (Henry Holt, 2022), which Booklist calls “brave, incisive and uncompromising.” This book will be available for sale following the lecture.

In April 2019, Hill debuted her award-winning podcast, Jemele Hill is Unbothered, on Spotify. The two-time Webby award-winning podcast features in-depth, thought-provoking conversation with some of the biggest newsmakers across entertainment, culture, music, and politics. In 2018, Hill was honored by the National Association of Black Journalists with its Journalist of the Year Award.

This event is free and open to the public. Registration is requested.

For more information and to register for the event, scan the QR Code at left or please visit springfield.edu/speakerseries.

Parking will be available in designated campus lots. Shuttles will circulate to assist attendees with mobility needs.

The Arts & Humanities Speaker Series has been made possible through the generosity of Carlton '63 and Lucille Sedgely.

If you wish to be seated near the American Sign Language interpreter or you have a disability and require reasonable accommodations to fully participate in this event, please contact Damon Markiewicz at (413) 748-3124 or dmarkiewicz@springfield.edu by Oct. 17 to discuss your accessibility needs.

Springfield College is a smoke- and tobacco-free environment.